SECRETARY

CONTINUED

Bryan is the head official for PACK and takes pride in PACK having the most affiliated officials in the Gulf LSC. PACK is known for providing coaches, swimmers, and their parents an outstanding meet experience, and having enough officials to ensure a safe and fair competition is a big part of that. Becoming an official allowed Bryan to learn more about the sport his kids were so passionate about and taught him to appreciate the nuances of each stroke and event. This enabled him to be able to talk with them about their training and swims and focus on other aspects besides just the time on the board. His goal is for other parents to learn more about the sport of swimming which will allow them to have more constructive conversations with their athletes.

Bryan also provides regular seminars for swimmers and parents who are interested in learning more about the various opportunities to swim in college and navigating the recruiting process. There are many factors that must be taken into consideration with each athletic division and school, as well as a constantly changing collegiate athletics regulatory landscape. His goal is to help PACK swimmers find the perfect fit for their academic and athletic goals.

Bryan has participated in several dozen running, swimming, cycling, and triathlon events since 2008 and enjoys being a resource for those wishing to embark on a more healthy, active lifestyle.

ALIZA RANNEY

AT LARGE

Aliza and her husband, Courtney, have been married since 1999. They lived in Maryland at Ft. Meade for a couple of years while Courtney completed his time in the Army. Soon after, they traded east coast for west coast to reside in Northern California, where Aliza grew up. Looking for better opportunities, the couple relocated to Courtney's home state of Texas in 2003, living in Houston for a few years before settling down in Spring to raise their two children, Josh and Alexa.

The family was introduced to swimming through their neighborhood summer league team, the Spring Creek Oak Dolphins. Joshua swam for a couple of years but lost interest, however his sister Alexa really took a shine to swimming. In fact, it was her participation in the PACK summer league clinic that got her interested in becoming a year-round swimmer. In the fall of 2018, Alexa joined PACK's Silver group and rest is history. She currently swims in the Pre-Nat Elite group and on the Klein High School Varsity swim team.

Aliza was born in Fargo, North Dakota and moved to California at an early age. Her family lived in southern California for a brief time before moving to Danville in the northern part of the state. She graduated from San Ramon Valley High School and attended Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, earning her B.A. in Political Science. In 2006, she graduated magna cum laude from the University of Houston with her M.S. in Accountancy. After spending 2 years in public accounting at Ernst & Young, she navigated to the private sector for 6 years before deciding to stay at home to be with her kids. Aliza spent 4 years on the board of her neighborhood swim team and is a current board member of the Klein Swim & Dive Boosters. She loves traveling, playing tennis, cooking, and spending time with her family.
